Hotel Vagabond (39 Syed Alwi Road, tel: 6291-6677, www.hotelvagabondsingapore.com)

“If you and your beau are big art buffs – or even just regular folk who appreciate art and design from a purely aesthetic standpoint – then a local getaway at Hotel Vagabond is a must. A stay here is a veritable visual feast, provided by everything from the two life-sized elephant sculptures by French artist Franck Le Ray and towering gold-leafed trees decorating the lobby, to the photographs (taken by owner Satinder Garcha on his round-the-world trips) that adorn the walls and functional art pieces like a rhino bookcase you can actually buy. The hotel doesn't compromise on comfort either: The king-size bed with Egyptian cotton sheets, goose-down pillows and comforters were all exceedingly luxurious.”

The Valentine's Day Package, from $350, includes one night's stay in a Classic room, a special complimentary cocktail and personalised bathroom items.
