

5th Quarter – Grilled Meats in Saucy Hotel Vagabond

Restaurateur Loh Lik Peng has done it again, this time with Satinder Garcha and Chef Nocente (of W Singapore's Skirt) at the helm. Fifth Quarter opens in uber artsy Hotel Vagabond and offers house cured charcuterie (Chorizo, Salsiccia and Red Wine Salami) and a chance to tuck into jasper grilled cuts: from the 'safe' choice Pork Belly to more adventurous cuts like Salt & Pepper Tripe. If you're planning a date night with a difference, get brownie points with dinner here followed by a four-minute commute to bed upstairs. Hotel Vagabond (stylish interiors by French designer Jacques Garcia) has just opened its doors and is dripping in red sultry tones and brass sculptures from the life-size elephants holding up the ceiling to the solid brass Rhino reception desk (crafted by 15 villages in Rajasthan over 8 months, no less).
